The first three Aneka Jansen books, The Steel Trilogy, have gone to press and been very well received. More people have picked up on the Thaumatology series as a result. I couldn't be happier. Next year will see three more books about Aneka, a new one about Ceri and Lily, and maybe the result of another little project I'm working on.

Aneka Jansen is a woman out of her time. Suspended in nano-stasis in deep space for over a thousand years, she is awoken to discover that the world is very different, but in some ways the same as the one she left. But a changed environment is not the largest thing she has to deal with; Aneka is a changed woman. There is steel beneath her skin.

Steel Beneath the Skin (Audiobook) by Niall Teasdale ...

Niall Teasdale's Steel Beneath the Skin, published 2011, is one of those books that makes me itch to write. Aneka Jansen, kidnapped by aliens in 2011, is reborn as a cyborg a thousand years in the future, in an omnisexual utopian society where everyone seems to be having sex with each other... A lot of reviewers complain about the amount of sex.
