So far in my Year of Reading Buechner series I have read two of Frederick Buechner's four memoirs: A Sacred Journey, and Now and Then. These two books cover Buechner's early childhood, marred by the suicide of his father, and the beginning of his career as a professor and writer. This month it was time for the next memoir, Telling Secrets. This book was written in 1991, when Buechner was 65 ...

Attempting to describe Frederick Buechner's writings through a series of themes is a bit like trying to reduce art to three primary colors. As Brian McLaren writes in his foreword to Buechner's book, Secrets in the Dark: "I have no desire to analyze what makes Buechner's writing and preaching so extraordinary. Neither do I want to account for Bob Dylan's raspy mystique, the peculiar ...
