Oh Amy Lane! I can see why so many people enjoy her writing. She had me at "The Locker Room" (my first Amy Lane read) and consequently I knew I needed to read more by her. The Talker series was recommended to me, (I think by Tom originally, but I don't remember) and I had the pfd in my "unread" file for a while now.

Talker, Tome 1 de Amy Lane. Or. Brian Cooper et Tate Walker, deux âmes perdues pour des raisons différentes qui vont se trouver et nous offrir une très belle histoire d'amitié puis d'amour. Ce n'est pas la première romance gay que je lis et jusqu'à maintenant j'ai toujours été surprise par la tolérance qui se dégage de ces romances ...

review 1: Tate is so different than you would think when you imagine how he looks. His tattoo's are so intimidating. I mean how many people have tattoos on their face? But its really just camouflage. He was burned very badly as a child and tries to hide his scars with the ink, the hair, the makeup, the piercings.
