Today's message is a follow-up to yesterday's message "The Unseen Eternal" which was a reminder that all we presently see is temporary. We need to fix our eyes on the unseen, which is eternal. A vital spiritual principle is this: It's so easy to see the earthly reality but far more difficult to see the equally valid spiritual reality.

We can't see the future. It's one limitation we all share. In Mark Chapter 5 we read about Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. The Jairus we see in this story was a desperate father begging for Jesus to heal his daughter. His meeting with Jesus was interrupted by a message from home- "Your daughter is dead."
