Small Steps - Louis Sachar - Google Books

We've been on a recent Louis Sachar binge after reading Holes, Pig City and now this. Holes is great a book, I love the mystery of it, but this is something else. Unusually it centres around a disturbed child who has resigned to failing school and how his whole world changes when a new kid starts.

Small Steps: Amazon.co.uk: Louis Sachar: Books

I ordered Small Steps because I taught and really liked Holes a number of years ago. It can be a stand alone book, but the history of Holes helps to understand a few things in the book. I would especially recommend it for upper elementary and middle school, but it is enjoyable for any age and gives one value concepts to think about.
