SUMMER OF THE GYPSY MOTHS blends the nostalgic feel of a summer beach adventure with a mix of lovable characters, unique plot elements, unexpected events, and an uplifting ending. A few of the premises are a bit of a stretch -- for example, how the girls take care of Louise, and what they're able to do on their own.

Summer of the Gypsy Moths - Book Review

Summer of the Gypsy Moths. Like summer itself, SUMMER OF THE GYPSY MOTHS has a bittersweet tone, as Stella gradually comes to terms with the truth about her mother and allows herself to think about the future in new and unexpected ways. Although Stella's situation is obviously extreme, she has much to show all readers about how to cope with loss,...

Summer of the Gypsy Moths

The Gypsy Moth Summer deals with family issues, class distinctions, race issues, summer romance, the military complex, corporate pollution and yes, a gypsy moth invasion that overshadows everything happening in the summer of 1992. I highly recommend The Gypsy Moth Summer, it will be one of the most-talked about books of the summer.
