Storming the Gates of Paradise. Rather than let Adam and Eve regain life by their own efforts of eating fruit, God gives them better: the promised Seed, who restores their life by His work and suffering. Rather than return them to life in the garden where the devil could tempt again, the Seed brings eternal life and the devil's defeat.

Storming the Gates of Paradise Quotes. "If gold has been prized because it is the most inert element, changeless and incorruptible, water is prized for the opposite reason -- its fluidity, mobility, changeability that make it a necessity and a metaphor for life itself. To value gold over water is to value economy over ecology,...

Storming the Gates of Paradise: Landscapes for Politics. "Rebecca Solnit, like some of the places she writes about here, is a national treasure. At a time of reckless arrogance in high places, hers is a voice of moral clarity, wisdom about our country and planet, and impressive erudition that is lightly worn.
