The message is simple: If you want to be my disciple then you'd better count the costs. It's an "all or nothing" proposition. If you're not ready to jump in with both feet, and stay with the journey until the very end, then perhaps its best to stay behind rather than suffer the embarrassment of starting out on the journey and having to turn back before you get to the end.

But Oakland is not alone. With cities, towns and their respective state governments having overspent billions of dollars over the last decade, many are so broke they have no choice but to lay off emergency services employees that include cops and medical first responders.. It's gotten so bad in some parts of the country, that there are areas of major cities where police refuse to go.
