Something Like Autumn Seasons 3

Three months ago I've read Something like Summer and ended up with a raging fury and a broken heart. Now, Jace's life story and POV for the events from Something like Summer were like a balm. If I were to compare the two books, Something like Summer was like a storm, while Something like Autumn was like a single violin playing in the moonlight.

Something Like Autumn (2013) About book: This is definitely my favorite book in this series so far, and also one of my favorite novels ever. The story of Jace is extremely dynamic, though-provoking, romantic, and sad. It's complex, and yet so simple because we already know what we are headed for after reading the first two novels. Except of course, we are not.

There are many beautiful days in Autumn. Trees change color, and the weather is not too hot but not too cold. The leaves begin to fall from the trees, the birds leave, and there seems to be a kind of sadness in the air. It is not a happy season like spring. Autumn is a sad season, but I always like it. It is my favorite season.
