J. G. Ballard's latest novel, the critically acclaimed "Super-Cannes", is a futuristic thriller set in a high-tech business park somewhere in Cannes, where the eerie hum of economic activity within the cloistered confines of offices and laboratories substitute for real human contact.

Super-Cannes book by J.G. Ballard

J.G. Ballard: Super-Cannes. A surrealist at heart, Ballard lives for those moments when natural and unnatural worlds come together to form a new landscape that's twisted, unstable, and sometimes oddly beautiful. At nearly 400 pages, Super-Cannes is too loose in its plot mechanics to match the taut, diamond-sharp efficiency of Crash or High-Rise.

While their are novels by J.G. Ballard I like however Super-Cannes isn't one of them. It's very slow start so you have to read a lot till the story gets moving but it doesn't move any faster. A lot of detail to read which I felt could have been cut down a bit to get to the point and also felt the novel was flat.
