Word Order in Questions. (How many dollars does the boy have?) As in English, questions can be formed in Spanish without the interrogatives, although Spanish is more flexible in its word order. In Spanish, the general form is for the noun to follow the verb. The noun can either appear immediately after the verb or appear later in the sentence.

How to Ask Questions in Spanish - ThoughtCo

Best Answer: There are two ways to do this in spanish. The first follows the "normal" way - the same as we do in english. We begin the question with "what is" or "how many" or "how much" etc. That part is easy. The second way is to just make a statement and infer the question by raising your voice ...
