Mr. Frugalwoods and I recently marked the two year anniversary of our adoption of Frugal Hound! It only seems right to celebrate her in this week's woot. We know she's just a dog (I swear!), but she brings an immense amount of joy into our lives. Her lack of awareness about the world around her ...

I see what your saying, but I don't think you quite understand the concept behind being a frugal person. Frugality my dear Watson, is about buying a great item that will last if you do decide to spend money on something you buy something that wont fall to pieces, I think you have being cheap and being Frugal mixed up in your skull mate.

This weeks action step, as part of the disaster preparation series, is to put together a grab and go bag for each member of the family. I was living in North Ryde (Sydney), right on the edge of Lane Cove National Park, during the Black Christmas bushfires in 2002.. We had spent the day in the city, blissfully unaware that the bushfires were anywhere near where we were living.

My, my, I am in shock. After complaining in this spot for 19 years ("Frugal Fridays," that preceded this renamed "Frugal Vegas," started in April, 2000!), many casinos must have got together to decide to shut me up and take my advice and put out their monthly promotional material early so we players could plan ahead.

We store our DIY Kitchen Compost Bucket under our kitchen sink so food scraps can easily be added to it during food preparation. My wife is very particular about smells and was happy to find that no odor came from our homemade bin, thanks to the charcoal filter. Just like with any other bin equipped with a charcoal filter, you will have to replace the filters every few months if you want it to ...
