Suicide Edouard Leve

That suicide totally reshaped how people view the person--backwards from the event--is so true. Leve has a unique way of exploring as an observer how one makes the choice, plans and then executes that plan and then how those left behind deal with the choice.

Le Suicide was painted by Édouard Manet During his final years (1877-1881). Despite the curious theme of the painting, it exists as a marginalized work in Manet scholarship. The iconography is puzzling - both the identity of the man and the circumstances surrounding this primal act of self-inflicted torture has eluded scholars.
