The Almost Truth Eileen Cook

The Almost Truth was the first Eileen Cook book I've read so I didn't know what to expect. Cover and synopsis are deceiving. I thought it will be something like Stealing Heaven by Elizabeth Scott and Heist Society by Ally Carter but the whole storyline was revolving around Sadie's identity and finally accepting herself.

Eileen Cook grew up in a small town in Michigan, but would go on to live in Boston and Belgium before settling in Vancouver, Canada with her husband and two very naughty dogs. In second grade Eileen's teacher wrote on a homework assignment "I am sure someday you will be an author" which is a tribute to the psychic abilities of elementary school teachers, as well as Eileen's penchant for making things up.
