"You want to write, you need to keep an honest, unpublishable journal that nobody reads, nobody but you," Madeleine L'Engle counseled in her advice to aspiring writers. W.H. Auden once described his journal as "a discipline for [his] laziness and lack of observation." Journaling, I believe, is a practice that teaches us better than any other the elusive art of solitude — how to be ...

A few weeks ago we published Nora's Garbanzos Fritos, well the day she taught us how to make them, she also taught us how to make one of Cuban cuisine's "comfort foods" - Potaje de Garbanzos. I know that for me this brings back memories of my grandmother, who as a true Spaniard could solve all your problems with a good "potaje".
