Shades Children Garth Nix

When I picked this up, I picked it up for the fact I was a fan of Garth Nix's Old Kingdom Trilogy, and was hoping to find more that he had written. And this really did ace it. Shade's Children is set in a dystopia setting, perhaps more modern than not, as the technology of present day is still there in that setting, but no one knows how to use it.

Shade's Children by Garth Nix | Teen Ink

Shade's Children features teens in a near-constant state of jeopardy as they battle deadly Wingers, Ferrets and Myrmidons. Because these creatures are human/machine hybrids, they gush ichor, rather than blood. But because they contain the still vaguely conscious brains of captured children, their deaths invite a variety of mixed emotions.
