I care for my 21 month old grandson 4 days a week while parents work. We are all concerned because he isn't saying any words. We talk to him, and play with him, and he communicates with us and understands everything we say, but he will only grunt and point or use other body language to communicate.

On the Red Line train this guy gets into the car I'm in, right before the doors close. He stands there and says, "Safe! I made it!"—doing a baseball umpire motion for "Safe" holding an unpeeled banana in one hand and some mail in the other. Then he sits in the seat next to me, organizing the mail on his lap.
