Math formulas and cheat sheet generator for quadric, cubic and quartic equations.

Math formulas for solutions of algebraic equations

The set of all solutions of an equation is called the solution set of the equation. In the first equation above $\{3\}$ is the solution set, while in the second example $\{-2,1\}$ is the solution set. We can verify by substitution that each of these numbers is a solution of its respective equation, and we will see later that these are the only solutions.
