A tale in the sting. Spanish Fly by Will Ferguson 394pp, Harvill Secker, £12.99 Will Ferguson's first novel, Happiness, was a witty satire about the publishing industry, self-help manuals and other people's stupidity. In his second, he continues investigating human folly, following a trio of con artists around the American Midwest in the 1930s.

Review: Spanish Fly by Will Ferguson | Books | The Guardian

Spanish Fly Excellent story and narration. Had me laughing outloud and smiling throughout the book. The characters were well developed, you really felt you knew them. The scams talked about are still out there today so easy to relate too. Very enjoyable!
