Serious Men Manu Joseph

I really feel that I should have read Serious Men first before going on to Manu Joseph's second book, The Illicit Happiness of Other People. Not to take anything away from Serious Men, which is an exceptional, and a very courageous debut at that, but Joseph's second book is a tour de force which takes you to an entirely different level of cherished literary hangover.

Serious Men. By Manu Joseph Serious Men. Manu Joseph. First Published 2010. Harper Collins Publishers, India. I do not see why the book won 'The Hindu Best Fiction Award, 2010' or the 'American PEN Open Book Award, 2011', maybe because its competitors were worse. It is a pretentious, fairly inauthentic, and mostly pointless story about the ...

Book Review - Serious Men - By Manu Joseph - nytimes.com

«Serious Men» can be easily mistaken for satire, but it is rather humorous novel. Satirical allusions to the structure of Indian society, Indian science and Indian religion then are withdrawn dashed, and the humor here, perhaps, is even English. All the troubles come from women - about this with a smirk on his face Manu Joseph is trying to ...
