I like Sci-Fi books and the future seems always filled with war. Steel Breach doesn't break new ground but does a fantastic job of telling the story for the writer's universe. On the technical side, the novel is well laid out and well edited. If you read a lot of Kindle Books, you know this sets this one apart right away.

DogForge eBook: Casey Calouette, Justin Adams, Max Booth III: Amazon.in: ... Kindle Edition ... I read this because I'd previously read Steel Breach; same author, different universe. I wasn't too sure of the theme (dog's in space), but though I'd give it a go anyway. And it's pretty awesome.
