What Idols? - National Catholic Register

I knew I'd have to read Scalia's new book, Strange Gods: Unmasking the Idols in Everyday Life, when I heard she was writing it. I didn't expect to be in the first wave of reviewers, because, well, the topic seemed...distant. And then I heard her talk about it on Catholic Weekend.

Idols in Everyday Life? Where? - Snoring Scholar

In Strange Gods, Elizabeth Scalia provokes mind and heart as she recaptures with great insight the enduring truth that idolatry is never to be reduced to just persons, but always seen as anything and everything that we put "in front of God" (9). And once we put idol into that category, well...then you have 'Strange gods' indeed
