Why are thriller movies so popular? Is it because they have interesting plot? Or is it because they have troubled characters who can't seem to get a handle on their lives? Or both? Whatever be the reason, I love suspense films as much as anybody else. That's why I thought of putting together this list [...]

Hollywood has turned the tongue-in-cheek one-liner into a fairly common trope for cheesy taglines, but the one chosen for Edgar Wright's Shaun of the Dead manages to escape criticism due to the simple fact that "a romantic comedy, with zombies" actually gives an accurate depiction of what message the film is seeking to send. The story may be set during a zombie outbreak, but as is the case in ...
