Songs for the Missing : NPR

In Songs for the Missing, Stewart O'Nan allows us only one stunningly ordinary chapter in the life of Kim Larsen before she vanishes without a trace. The one chapter is so barren of clues that we are left just as baffled as the family and friends left behind to dissect how Kim could have disappeared on that last seemingly ordinary day.

Leafing Through Life: Songs for the Missing by Stewart O'Nan

Songs for the Missing describes how Kim's parents and younger sister and a few of Kim's friends try to move on, held back by the uncertainty of Kim's fate. Not knowing whether she is dead or alive, whether she ran away or came to harm, leaves them in a frustrating limbo -- and O'Nan captures that limbo very well.
