At some places, the same process (getting eyes diluted a few times with eye-drops for doctors to examine the patient's eyes well) is called 'dilation'.

What is the difference between dilation and dilatation?

We have all had sites that close prior to the study actually being completed. It is always asked if the site's IRB allows them to close the study and submit the Sponsor's final report when the study is completed or if the study needs to remain open at the site to allow the final report to be received by the IRB.. If the study needs to remain open with the IRB, this can become time ...

Recently, while on a monitoring visit for a physician sponsored IDE study in which IMARC was concurrently conducting a clinical audit, I was caught off guard by the question "do you know what the FDA Form 3674 is?" I thought I had spent a good deal of my professional career working in the clinical research industry, I try my best to be a diligent student of the regulations and GCP ...

A "general statement" "intended to develop a unified conceptual scheme for theory and research in the social sciences" was published by nine USA social scientists in 1951. Theory was to be based on a "theory of action" in which "the point of reference of all terms is the action of an individual actor or collective of actors".
