Wendy Higgins' See Me is a quirky and cute tale with sprinkles of imaginative Irish folklore embedded into the plot. While it is certainly not a perfect story, it is one that is entertaining and fun to read regardless.

See Me (See Me, #1) by Wendy Higgins - Goodreads

Ever since Wendy announced this book, I have been anxiously awaiting it. Like some of you may know, See Me is self-published. Wendy's first self-published book, in fact. She had planned to release it last October, but couldn't figure out what was up with the story. Eventually, she figured it out, and she released it on St. Patrick's Day!

SEE ME had my interest from the moment Wendy Higgins announced she was self publishing a new book. This book had the perfect blend of Irish lore, Fae magic, and was given a unique twist with both the Leprechaun and Chaun lore. I loved the mix of all these elements together, and the way Wendy wrote their stories, and their history/lore.
