Story Structure Architect: A Writer's... book by Victoria ...

Story structure is old news, and frankly it rubs some writers the wrong way. It shouldn't - that's like saying gravity and taxes rub you the wrong way. Deny them all you want... they're always there, inescapable, sucking you in. Story architecture, on the other hand, isn't always there. While intuitively interpretable, this is a term I've coined to describe the collective whole that exceeds the sum of the storytelling parts.
