Sleeping Handsome review 1: Personally I don't like short stories, I've always preferred full length novels but this was a sweet short story, and one I wouldn't mind reading again. I found this to be, surprisingly, the right length, any longer and it wouldn't have had the same effect, although I would like to have read the scene with Paige ...

Sleeping Handsome is a modern retelling of Sleeping Beauty with a nice twist. He is sleeping instead. Zach is an injured almost 18 year old who is home but silent in a coma. Paige is a high school senior forced to do community service. Her job is to read to Zach, because we know many coma patients can still hear.
