review 1: ok so i don't normally read erotica, let alone dinosaur erotica, but this was a (joke) birthday gift from a dear friend and i promised him that i would write a review. so this book, weighing in at all of 15 pages, is completely ridiculous. i would venture to guess that the author(s) spent all of an hour on this book, and that includes the time needed to photoshop the terrible cover ...

So last night I dreamed I was a t-rex. I was living a happy t-rex life with my t-rex lover and my other dinosaur friends. Then I woke up one day to find that my t-rex lover had taken me 1 million years into the future in order to avert a disaster to all of t-rex kind (no, I'm not talking about the meteor).

Even worse than garbage when a T-rex decides he'd rather have sex with a human female than eat her. But it isn't terrible. It's by no means great, but not as bad as I, and no doubt every other person expects it to be. The writing is strange. Strange because the author only seems capable of describing a dinosaur as a 'Big Lizard'.
