In many ways classic cars are valued and priced the same way as other fine art is: condition and demand. Scarcity may add to the allure of a car, but does not always guarantee a high price. Compare this to how your kindergartener's art project is one-of-a-kind, but won't be on the block at Sotheby's next to a Klimt or Dali.

Art of Manliness Verified account @artofmanliness Aug 7. People often use age as an excuse for gradual (and sometimes not-so-gradual) weight gain over the years. But while metabolism does decrease as you get older, that slowdown is largely not a function of age, but a result of the loss of muscle mass.
