Amy MacKinnon

Tethered, is a debut novel (just 257 pages) by Amy MacKinnon; it was released last month. The premise intrigued me: Clara Marsh, is an emotionally fragile woman who works as an undertaker in Brockton, MA. She does not believe in God. When asked what she does believe, she responds by saying "I believe it is important to breathe".

Tethered by Amy MacKinnon - Goodreads

"In Tethered, Amy MacKinnon starts with an unlikely narrator and an unlikely setting and delivers up that most unlikely (and sought-after) of results: a deeply engaging and memorable book. Brava." —Jon Clinch, author of Finn "Amy MacKinnon is a rarity among debut authors.

Amy MacKinnon is a rarity among debut authors. Not only does she possess the raw talent, she already knows how to use it. Tethered is as good as it gets: a haunting plot, an exquisitely flawed heroine, and sophisticated, powerful prose that deftly explores the ties that bind us all—to each other, and to the complex worlds around us. A brilliant debut.
