Stone Bruises - Simon Beckett

Stone Bruises by Simon Beckett is described as a thriller while being a well written and enjoyable read it is more Miss Marple than out and out thriller. This a not so much whodunit but what did they all do and what are they hiding. Saying that it was a very pleasurable read even when I read it on a football coach to that there London town.

review 1: Stone Bruises is a very fast paced novel, and the adrenaline filled en media res acts as a great hook and sets the pacing for the story. I thought that the revelation of Sean's backstory was done in a way that keeps readers intrigued, but doesn't leave them feeling like there is something the other characters know that the reader's don't.
