Hi Fiona, That's a very interesting question! I think it's a first for us. The Old Farmer's Almanac is a North American publication founded in 1792 when George Washington was president, so our Moon names come from a history of Colonialism and Europe heritage as well as the Native American influence.. So, it may be interesting to look at your early culture and especially consider the ...

Some Catholic Demographics The purpose of this page is not to be a clearinghouse for Catholic demographic data. But as we come across some interesting statistics, we may add them here. Catholic countries have lower suicide rates than Protestant ones and "even within Protestant countries those areas with Catholic populations [have] lower rates." It is worth noting that "the reduced suicide rate ...
