About For Books Sweetness and Power: The Place of Sugar in ...

Today, corn sweeteners have begun to overtake sucrose in the West; but cane sugar and beet sugar still have promising futures in the poor, or "less developed" world. My work on sugar, Sweetness and Power, situates it within Western history because it was an old commodity, basic to the emergence of a global market.

Having read Mr. Mintz's 'Sweetness and Power,' I can but conclude that Mr Mintz is obviously knowledgable in the material, but lacks a small number of vital abilities with writing. His book seems to simply present information and data to support whatever thought he is currently on, almost as if the author is rambling.
